Foiling Squirrels
or How to Make a Perfect Fool of Yourself

By A.H.S.

Entitling this simply "foiling squirrels" would result in the shortest article in the history of Letters. But by adding the subtitle above, the way is cleared for endless dialogue (or diatribe).

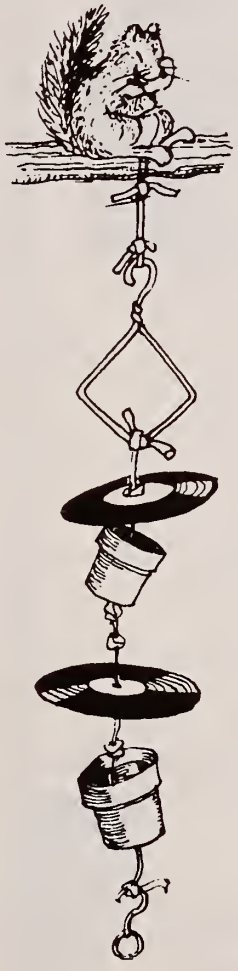
The first premise you must accept is that squirrels are smarter than we are — which really makes any further attempts to outwit them pointless, doesn't it? However, since the basic equation also implies that we're not as smart as squirrels, we will continue to try.

Secondly, recognize that they have a well-developed sense of humor, compounding our exasperation, salt-in-the-wound style. This is no ordinary enemy.

Even Mother Nature conspires, and that may be an indication of whose side she's on. Who has not stood, new bird feeder in hand, gazing skyward for the branch that is not there? Oh, sure, there's one to the left of that appealing spot, one to the right, and even one two feet lower. But that perfect spot, where no squirrel could gain access to the feeder, soars straight up to the heavens wherein dwell the mischievous powers in charge of such things.

I won't bore you with all my failures, but were you to see the abandoned remnants of ropes and clotheslines every few inches along the branches, you'd be relieved to know I plan to point out only a few. Each unravelling knot is a rude reminder of victor and vanquished in this war of the I.Q.'s.

Being stupid comes easily to even the most creative of us, but being spectacular at the same time is a gift. Proof (in bits and pieces) of this special talent still exists in the bird-feeding-graveyard section of our garage. This particular early effort was a Rube Goldberg invention of alternating plant pots, 33-1/3 r.p.m. records and wire coat hangers strung and knotted on coated clothesline, all guarding a feeder at the bottom. Installation required a ladder as well as more time than a mature adult should spare for such nonsense. You have guessed that this took place before I gave due respect to squirrels' TEETH, a lesson underscored when they chewed up the wooden storm window on which we had placed a suction-cup window feeder.



At any rate, the entire Goldberg contraption plummeted with one incision.

Slathering the suspending line with old but tasty kitchen grease was a very generous act. This is the origin of the expression "getting there is half the fun." Fine tuning their timing on a laboriously installed spooker pole, which has a sleeve that carries the squirrel back to the ground, was just another game. Innocent to the bitter end, we thought we were going to have a few laughs. The addition of a large flat disk baffle, attached just below the feeder by a spring mechanism, does work on this or any other pole. All did not come right quickly, of course.

After several trials and errors which left a pockmarked lawn in my wake, I discovered that the pole must be 6 to 7 feet from any branches or house parts that could serve as jumping off points. Sawing off branches that provide access can seem like a good idea in the heat of the moment; but remember that this can get out of hand. The spooker pole installation claimed only two branches, but there is confirmation of backyard birders ultimately leveling entire trees. It's best to hide the saw for a few contemplative hours, or have a relative standing by to yell "No more!"

I'm not sure how many poles you could erect aesthetically (if you care), but because of the squirrel-jump spacing, pole-mounted feeders end up removed from the tree or shrub cover that gives birds a sense of security.

Another successful combination has been the practically indestructible satellite feeder in conjunction with a sizable round plexiglass baffle. Even if the squirrel can land on top of the baffle, he can't reach the feeder to tip some of the sunflower seeds out. Chickadees, finches, nuthatches, titmice and the male downy woodpecker feed unmolested here. An occasional generation of cardinals has learned to helicopter while dining at the satellite, but the current group is still waiting for us to figure out how to keep the squirrels out of what is optimistically called a "cardinal feeder."

Your favorite bird store can be a big help, from small hanging accessories to high ticket "squirrel-proof" feeders. (Have I shied away from these because I am a doubter, or because they just might work and put an end to this pathetic but engrossing hobby?)

And then there are feeders that come with a "squirrel destruction guarantee." The fact that the manufacturers can offer this is comforting: it indicates that better minds than mine have been devoting time, energy, money and heaven knows how much educational background to solving the same problem. This is, on a serious note, an offer worth looking for when feeder shopping. Poorly engineered constructions are quickly reduced to rubbish (see previous reference to bird-feeding-graveyard section of garage, wherein languish dented and chewed remnants that might be just what I need for my next effort and first triumph).

A new development is the proliferation of squirrel feeders. I have in hand a catalog offering seven different models. Hey, who inflicted all the damage in this war? Why should we offer reparations?

Ah, well ... they could turn our lawns into lunar landscapes when they instead seamlessly bury a bumper crop of acorns and pignuts ... they could be vicious and even eat the birds ... they could be boring twits who don't gambol in the spring sun ... they could have the same defense as skunks — and wouldn't that cut down on our daily chases.

Enough of these crumbs of solace. Right now I've got to figure out our newest feeder: What we thought was the perfect spot has soured — it's an easy vertical leap from the ground. Because of all the variables, it can't be raised. Maybe I could dig a big ditch under it ... or maybe ... oh, forget it. Bon appetit.

Election" as required by the Secretary of State's election division.

•Dennis F. Luttrell sent the minutes of the Buzzards Bay Action Committee meeting on September 20.

•Robert M. Coquillette wrote about the proposed expansion of the New Bedford Airport. "In contrast to the proposed casino, this project is a permanent economic gain to this southeastern Massachusetts region and is a real benefit to the citizens of Mattapoisett." He said that "studies show that the two million residents of southeastern Massachusetts would save ten million dollars per year in improved access to air travel and air freight when this project is completed." It would also be a great improvement for the fishing industry.

•William Guenther, of the Massachusetts Clean Water Council, and Geoffrey Beckwith, of the Massachusetts Municipal Association, invited the board to a meeting on "Title 5, Wastewater, and Drinking Water: What Municipalities Face and How To Pay For It."

The board discussed weight restriction on roads; truck traffic cannot be restricted and weight restriction is only allowed on bridges. The Highway Department will paint the yellow lines on North Street either Wednesday or Thursday. Police patrols have been increased there.

Executive Secretary CarolAdams told the board that they will meet in early November at the Rochester Town Hall for the perambulation of bounds. She also pointed out that "Representative William Straus and Commissioner of Department of Environmental Management, Peter Webber will conduct a press indeed fortunate to have a person with the proficiency and dedication of Diane Drake working in the Commission Office," Mr. Luttrell wrote in a letter to Selectmen. Chairman Winters said the letter was certainly nice to see. The board also received a letter from the Marion Conservation Commission which enthusiastically recommends the acceptance of the offer of a lot on River Road by the Estate of Rose DePina. According to Attorneys at Law, LeClair and Quinn, "My clients are interested in giving the land to the Town of Marion to be sued as conservation land. It is our understanding that the Town owns a lot next door and it seems to my clients that this would be a valuable addition to the town's conservation program, particularly since the lot borders of the Sippican River."

Next, the board received a notice from the Division of Marine Fisheries regarding a shellfish opening. According to the letter, "The waters and flats of Planting Island Cove south of a line drawn from the "No Shellfishing" sign at Five Island Court to the "No Shellfishing" sign south of Sippican Lane."

John Somers from Mystic, Connecticut sent a letter to the board about his recent visit to Marion. He wrote in a letter to Selectmen that his name is on the "Old Landing" war memorial as a veteran of World War II. He said he was pleased with the excellent care and attractiveness of the area. "We were in town for an "Old Gang" reunion with Bob Baxters, The Babbitts, Noyes, Whittakers, Paul Lipsitt and others.

Other correspondence received includes:

• A letter of acknowledgement of permit application receipt at Stoney Run Lane and Edgewater.

• A notice from Thompson Surveying and Engineering stating the Marion Board of Health will hold a hearing at the Board of Health on Tuesday, October 24th, 1995 at 7:15 pm on the Variance Application submitted by the Estate of Edmund Tripp, Front Street in Marion.

At 7:10 a classification hearing was held for the Board of Assessors. Although they weren't present they gave their recommendation to the board that all properties, business and residential, be taxed equally. The vote passed via majority because Selectman Schaefer wasn't present.

At 7:15 the board met with Robert Marso from the Marion Council on Aging. He said he was concerned that the Council won't have enough money for the rest of the year. Part of that reason is because they are receiving many calls for transportation he said. Many of the calls are due to dialysis patients he added. Chairman Winters suggested he come back with a 6-month result of their money situation in January. "That's the time to address it," Chairman Winters said. Chairman Winters told Mr. Marso not to hesitate on pursuing new services for seniors. "Look to the future, see what serviced seniors need. Don't hesitate to come see us, don't feel you have to hold back because of a temporary problem with money," Chairman Winters said.

Mr. James Neall approached the board with concern about a street lamp needing to be replaced on Pleasant Street."It was knocked over last November, and it hasn't been replaced yet. Nine months is an awful long time," he said. Selectmen said they had found a supplier of fiberglass poles and fixtures and are getting prices at this time. They said they are looking at getting five of the street lamps that will match the ones already in place. There are two others missing and two that aren't too sturdy Mr. Pickles noted. Mr. Neall said he looked forward to the replacement of the light soon. He also wanted to inform the board the name "Council on Aging" isn't included in the sign in front of the Town House. Mr. Pickles said that was because they weren't there when the sign was built.

There being no further business before the board, the meeting was adjourned at 7:45 pm.

Mattapoisett Children - Our Future!
The Time Is Now...
Vote YES On Question 1 - October 3rd
Old Hammondtown School Expansion

What will this expansion do?

It will provide four full-sized classrooms, three smaller classrooms, and other necessary improvements at Old Hammondtown School. The three smaller classrooms will be for LIFT, Chapter 1, and Speech. The improvements include a handicap accessible restroom, and mechanical plumbing and electrical upgrades, to meet existing building codes.

Why is the project necessary?

Old Hammondtown School is currently overcrowded with many required programs being conducted in storage rooms/closets.

How much will the project cost?

The town will be authorized to spend up to $1,200,000. for the classrooms and improvements. This will increase the tax rate by $16. per $100,000. of assessed value for a 20 year level debt service.

What happens to Center School?

Center School stays as a school for the foreseeable future. The long term status for Center School and realistic alternative uses must be considered in the broader context of long range capital needs planning for the entire town. The new Mattapoisett Capital Needs Committee should include this issue in its future analysis.

What do Mattapoisett leaders and residents say about the project?

"The proposed addition is important to the school system of Mattapoisett. It is essential to dealing with the overcrowded situation and is the minimum project that has to be done immediately."

-Jack DeCosta - Selectman, 19 years

"Even with educational reform and the added State monies to the town schools, there remains a pressing need for adequate space to serve the mission of the schools."

-Bill Straus, State Representative

"This is a much needed addition to Old hammondtown School. It is something that will serve the community for years to come."

-Paul Lambalot - Selectman, 4 years, present Chairman

"It is a needed thing. They need the space. We've been in the school during Fire Prevention Workshops and have observed the overcrowding."

-Ron Scott, Mattapoisett Fire Chief

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

September 25, 1995

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, September 25 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Michael Murphy. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes and Administrative Secretary Shirley A. Ferreira. Selectman David L. Hughes was not in attendance. After approving the minutes from the September 18th meeting, Selectmen reviewed incoming correspondence.

They approved a request from Mr. John Van Reenen, Commissioner of the Rochester Youth Baseball to transfer $600 from the Clarence Maxim Fund for the league. "These funds if granted to the league, would be used for the benefit of all 72 members of our six Little League Teams. The most beneficial use would be to allot each team a proportion of the contribution while using the balance to purchase baseballs and other supplies," wrote Mr. VanReen is a letter to Selectmen. Selectmen also received a notice from the Rochester Police Brotherhood to start setting up dates and times for the new contract negotiations. The current contract ends on June 30, 1996. The Rochester Brotherhood said they would like to meet on a weekly basis with all three Selectmen so issues can be decided on without waiting several weeks. Chairman Murphy and Selectman Hawkes agreed to postpone any discussion until Selectman Hughes is also present.

The last correspondence received was a

The objective of the Task Force will be to enforce drunk driving laws and to deter drunk driving within these communities and perhaps cut down on accidents involving drunk drivers. The Task Force would consist of two officers from Lakeville, two officers from Middleborough and one officer from Rochester. Each officer will be sworn in as a special in each town to cover the liability and be able to have the powers in each town of the Task Force. "I ask the board for your support in forming this Task Force to help reduce the amount of OUI's (operators) who may be travelling through our town, who pose a great danger for the motoring public," wrote Chief Denham in a letter to Selectmen. He said it would cost between $1,500 and $2,000 to fund the program.

Both Selectman Hawkes and Chairman Murphy supported the Task Force. "I have no problem with this, but if he doesn't have the funding in his budget we can't tell him to go ahead," Chairman Murphy said. He suggested Chief Denham take the money out of his budget. Selectman Hawkes said he probably wouldn't be able to do that. She suggested adding the amount onto the Special Town Meeting Warrant, but the deadline passed by two and a half hours. "As far as funding goes, he'll have to see what he can come up with out of his budget," Chairman Murphy noted.

Under new business, Chairman Murphy said he received a letter stating a position has opened up on the Old Rochester Regional Technology Task Force. Heather Bare recently resigned for personal reasons. Superintendent of Schools, Joan Walsh, wrote in a letter, "We would appreciate it if you would solicit local business representatives in the town for someone who is interested in serving on the task force." The task force meets the first Monday of the month from 4:00 pm-5:00 pm in the Dr. Joseph C. Kunces Memorial Library in ORR. Their October meeting will be held on October 10th. Anyone interested can notify the Superintendent of Schools.

Next, Selectmen reviewed the Special Town Meeting Warrant. The Special Town Meeting will be held on October 23, 1995 at 7:30 pm in the Rochester Memorial School. Residents will vote on 11 articles. After reading them through, Selectman Hawkes said she had some questions about a few of them. She questioned article six which is for $6,000 to purchase the services of a data collection firm and consultant relative to the FY 1996 revaluation program as required by the state. Ms. Ferreira explained she had been told the reason for the additional funding is because the state is requiring many more reports than usual. Chairman Hawkes also wanted to know the reason for the Town Clerk's expense to be amended to $8,617. Town Clerk Naida Parker informed her she wants to bring her two clerks, who work 10 hours each week, up to $7 an hour. They currently make $6.30. Ms. Parker said her reason for raising their pay is because of a newly hired clerk in the Building Inspector's Office who started at $7 an hour. Ms. Georgia Chamberlain, of the Planning Board said she didn't agree with Article Four. It states, "To see if the town will vote to accept Featherbed Lane, so called, from the southerly boundary of the Albert F. Jr. and Maurice D. Riley property, to include property of Julie A. and Michael R. St. Don." Ms. Chamberlain said she didn't feel comfortable with the article because of the proposed subdivision in that area. She also had concerns about the town having to pay for their dirt road to be paved. Chairman Murphy told her she was welcome to express her opinions at the meeting. Selectman Hawkes made a motion to approve the articles on the warrant; Chairman Murphy seconded her motion. Selectman Hawkes said she understood the articles better but still didn't agree with all of them.

LOAN CAP PROTECTION

If you plan to finance a home with an adjustable rate mortgage (one that goes up and down with the interest rate at periodic intervals) make sure you focus on the presence or absence of interest-rate "caps".

Caps are "security blanket" ceilings . They represent a guarantee from the lender that you will not be required to pay more than an agreed-upon maximum rate no matter how high interest rates may skyrocket.

The two most common rate caps are life-of-the-loan and annual. Life-of-the-loan caps shield you against total rate increases beyond, say four to five percentage points through the entire term of the loan. Annual caps are usually in the 1 to 2 percent range, offering protection against sudden, sharp run-ups.

Remember that these consumer features are optional and valuable. If you are offered an adjustable loan rate without a cap, you should be getting a price break to compensate you for the additional risk.

Call BRUCE today with any of your Real Estate questions or needs, we're here to help!! 758-6738.

New Bedford Office of Tourism

Tourism growth in New Bedford in 1995 has been outstanding. An increasing number of visitors are coming to the city via car, motorhome, air, pleasure boats and tour bus. Year to date, January 1-August 31, 1995-18,207 visitors have entered either the two Visitor Information Centers compared to 13,063 in 1994 for a gain of 40 percent. Interestingly, this increase matches the increase of visitors to the New Bedford Whaling Museum. It's important to understand the reasons for this growth. Primarily, New Bedford has started to advertise itself and ads placed in the Massachusetts Office of Travel and Tourism annual Getaway guide and AAA's Guide Book to Southern New England have resulted in more than 4,000 telephone calls to the Office of Tourism requesting additional information on the city and its attractions.

The visitor counts in the two centers is only a small portion of the total number of visitors to the city and should be considered only as an indication of an overall trend. As awareness of the city as a viable destination continues to increase and the infrastructure of things to see and do grows, the resulting increases in visitation will be exponential.

Poetry Group

Bartleby Scrivener Poetry Group is an informal discussion group that meets once a month at the JAVA BEAN Gourmet Coffee Cafe, 26 Water Street, across from the entrance to the YMCA in downtown New Bedford.

The purpose of the poetry group is to promote discussion and offer encouragement as well as feedback to poets in a supportive, creative atmosphere. The format is not primarily a critique workshop. Its focus is to provide a comfortable place where poets and lovers of poetry can talk about poetry and share their work and insights.

Bartleby Scrivener poets takes its name from Bartleby, the scribe, the main character in Herman Melville's short story, "Bartleby, the Scrivener." The tale tells of a nineteenth century scribe who refuses to compromise his principles and conform to the convention of his day. The group meets from 6:00 pm-8:30 pm on the first Monday of each month and on the second Monday during the holiday months. It's suggested poets bring about 15-20 copies of one poem for discussion. For more information contact Sue Grace at 758-4694.

The Plumb Library

The Plumb Library's preschool story hour series began on Wednesday, September 20th. The series takes place each Wednesday morning at 10:30 am and is open to Rochester children ages 3-5. Each week there will be stories, songs, crafts and a chance for children to interact. There will be two sessions this year: September-December and January-May. Those interested may sign up for one session only at this time. Registration started on September 2nd. To register, call the library at 763-8600, or sign up at the main desk during library hours.

The Plumb Library's Homework Center will be open again this school year, and the library is looking for people interested in being homework coaches. Coaches are available for a few hours each week to assist students with homework assignments, helping them find appropriate library materials, helping them understand their assignments and organize their thoughts. We will be conducting one-on-one training sessions over the next few weeks. Anyone interested in getting involved in this worthwhile project should contact Lucy at the library during library hours.

The library will be starting a Toy Exchange in the children's section of the library. Kids are invited to bring in their old toys (good condition only please) that they no longer play with. If a child sees a toy at the library that they would like to take home,

Charity Golf Tournament

The First Annual Charity Golf Tournament will be held on October 13, 1995 at the Kittansett Club in Marion. Designed by Frederick Hood in 1923 , the "links" style course, with a layout that depends on the natural features of the land and a constant wind, rather than artificial obstacles, provides a challenging game of golf. Chairperson of the event this year is Deborah Hynes of New Bedford. Other committee members are James Hughes, Patricia Janiak, Michael Rutkowski, Ronald LaStaiti and Eivind Strand. Proceeds from the tournament will provide YMCA programs to financially disadvantaged youths and families, including the YMCA's popular Camp Massasoit. Entry forms and sponsorship information are available by calling the YMCA at 997-0734. The event is limited to the first 120 paid golfers. Interested golfers are urged to sign up as soon as possible. The entry fee of $150 per player includes golf cart, greens fees and an elaborate dinner with numerous prizes. The tournament is open to men and women.

There IS An Alternative To "Temporary Help":

The Secretarial Service!

Why do you need an alternative? Because in today's sophisticated office, the solution to your work overload problems is often temporary equipment as much as temporary people.

As a professional Secretarial Service, we provide both the equipment and the trained staff to operate it. This allows your office to continue working at full capacity, while our office handles your overload word processing, transcription, or other special projects.

And we're always here and ready when you need us, for big jobs or small. We meet your deadlines and we guarantee our work.

Next time you're "swamped", try the alternative: Call Us!
